

With plantation activities as the core business of LCSB, the company has developed an area of 43,000 hectares of land, mainly consisting of oil palm trees as the main crop, along with orchard (fruit crop) in several areas of the estates.

The company has also successfully opened a peat soil area to be planted with oil palm trees. Through solid practice of agronomy and plantation, yields can be harvested within 26 months.